INTERACT123 Research Round-Up:
Teaching & Memory

January 2023

Welcome to the INTERACT123 Research Round-Up. Each month, we will provide you with recommendations for leading resources on a specific topic to support teaching, learning, and student success!
Books

Michelle D. Miller, Ph.D.
Remembering and Forgetting

"Remembering and Forgetting in the Age of Technology offers concise, nontechnical explanations of major principles of memory and attention - concepts that all teachers should know and that can inform how technology is used in their classes." book cover

James M. Lang, Ph.D.
Distracted

"In order for learning to happen, we need our students to be fully present in the classroom and we need to be fully present for them as well. This book tells us why we must actively cultivate our students' ability to focus, weaving together compelling and unexpected approaches for addressing the age-old problem of distracted students." book cover

Pooja K. Agarwal, Ph.D. & Patrice M. Bain, Ed.S.
Powerful Teaching

"This practical resource is filled with evidence-based strategies that are easily implemented in less than a minute—without additional prepping, grading, or funding!" book cover
